Storytelling-Meeting: Stories of Change, Resilience and Hope

25.06.2026, 2:15-4:30 pm CET+1, online via Zoom

We warmly invite you to join an online Council and storytelling gathering.

Many of us are living and working in challenging times. As educators, activists, community builders and changemakers, we often find ourselves asking: What helps us continue? What sustains us? Where do we find hope, meaning and resilience?

This gathering will offer a space to pause, listen and share stories from our own experience. You do not need to prepare anything or have answers to these questions beforehand. You are welcome whether you are feeling inspired, uncertain, hopeful or struggling at the moment.

We will meet in Council, a simple and deep practice of speaking and listening from the heart. Council invites us to be present with one another, to listen deeply, and to learn from the wisdom that emerges through shared stories.

Hosts:

Ana Carolina Simas is an educator and facilitator dedicated to regenerative learning and collaborative processes. She has been practicing Council with diverse groups and communities in Brazil and internationally for many years.

Sarah Laustroer works in projects on transformative learning and political education for the VNB in Germany and coordinates the international network Learn2Change.

Information: The meeting is free of charge. The language will be English.

Registration: Please register here: <https://www.vnb-ev.de/index.php?module=014000&dat=22291>
